Subject: Invitation to apply for Health Practitioner Disciplinary Tribunal?

Good afternoon,

As you may be aware, the Ministry of Health (MOH) is searching for health practitioner members of the Health Practitioners Disciplinary Tribunal (HPDT) in the following areas:

- Nurses
- Midwives
- Doctors
- Psychologists
- Pharmacists

The purpose of the HPDT is to protect the health and safety of members of the public by hearing and adjudicating upon charges laid against health practitioners. By carrying out hearings the HPDT can also provide a valuable educative role in relation to health profession standards.

I think that you would be an excellent fit for the Tribunal, and I'd like to encourage you to apply directly to MOH yourself to express your interest. Please note that applications are due by Sunday evening, 4 December 2011.

I've attached an application/declaration form and candidate information pack to this email.

Please note that any applicants for a health practitioner member position on the Tribunal must hold a current APC.

HOW TO APPLY

1. You will need to complete the attached application/declaration form.
2. Additionally, you will need to provide an up-to-date copy of your CV. Please let me know if you would like me to send you the most recent copy of your CV that we hold.
3. Email your application form and your CV to Melissa_Julius@moh.govt.nz.
4. Please let me know if you do decide to apply for this position, as the Ministry of Women's Affairs can support you in your application.

As I mentioned, your application must be received by Sunday evening, 4 December 2011. Please let me know if you have any further questions. If this isn't the type of vacancy that you're interested in, please let me know: I'd be happy to have a conversation with you to better understand your preferences.

Kind regards,
